Responsibilities

Employee	Records hours away from work for university holidays or hours worked for the same as appropriate
Payroll Office	Provides instruction for recording of holiday hours and alternate schedules for submission of timecards; posts annual holiday schedule
University Administration	Determines University holiday schedule and may change it in Baylor's discretion

Principles

Baylor University supports the wellbeing of its employees by granting paid time away from work for University holidays.

2. Holiday Time (BU-PP 407)

Procedures

Recording Holiday Hours

Non-exempt employees record time away from work for observed holidays via the University's time collection system and record this time as Holiday hours on their timecard. Employees are compensated for holidays provided the employee is in an active and paid status the workday immediately preceding the holiday and the workday immediately following the holiday. Employees who separate from the University must work the day prior to and the day immediately following the observed holiday to be compensated for the holiday.

Additional Pay

Non-exempt employees who work the observed holiday are compensated at one and a half times the regular rate of pay. Time will be recorded as regular hours on their timecard and the extra pay will be automatically added.

Alternate Time Off

Non-exempt employees required to work on observed holidays will be given alternate time off equal to the hours worked on the holiday. The alternate time off will be added to the employee's alternate time leave balance once the employee's time card is approved.

Exempt employees are given alternate time off equal to the hours worked on the holiday and should coordinate this leave with their supervisor. The exempt employee's manager should report the employee's hours worked on the holiday to Human Resources who will add the hours reported to the employee's alternate time leave balance in the system put in place by the University.

Upon separation from service, unused alternate time has no cash value in the employee's final pay.
